

Study UK and Covid-19: What to expect from UK Higher Education from 2020 onwards

Sign up to this webinar to better understand what UK Higher Education will look like in 2020-2021 #ReadyForYou

Overview

The UK's world-leading universities, which thrive on being global institutions, will always be open to international students. UK government and the higher education sector are working together to ensure existing rules and processes are as flexible as possible under the current unprecedented circumstances to ensure that international students planning to study in the UK from autumn 2020 can do so.

In this session, the British Council Study UK team will provide the latest updates on the UK's current Higher Education landscape and how UK universities are adapting to Covid-19.

Some of the key topics to be covered in this webinar are:

- Health and wellbeing
- Visas
- Travel
- UK Higher Education campuses amid Covid-19
- Admissions information
- Further support and advice

#StudyUK is a global campaign that promotes the UK as the first-choice study destination to international students and their influencers. It is the UK's only national-level campaign that showcases the UK's outstanding higher education offering and the life-changing opportunities it brings. It is led and delivered by the British Council in partnership with the UK government's GREAT Britain campaign.
